Identifying Nouns, Pronouns, Verbs, Adjectives, Adverbs, Prepositions, and Conjunctions

Directions: In the following sentences identify the part of speech of each word by writing one of the following abbreviations above the word:

- N = noun
- Adv = adverb
- V = verb
- Prep = preposition
- P = pronoun
- C = conjunction
- Adj = adjective

Example: Those books are mine.

1. Seattle taxi drivers are a unique group of people.

2. After two hours, the fans left the stadium.

3. I think this adventure movie is wonderful, but my friend prefers comedies.

4. The girl sat quietly and thought of ocean waves and warm sand between her toes.

5. Over the Blue Mountains, the sun went down in a blaze of glory.

6. The old city hall in Tacoma has a tall bell tower.

7. Jack seemed lively and talkative today.

8. She sat down quickly at her desk and began her assignments.

9. The inside of the classrooms were painted today.

10. The horse with the expert jockey won the race.