Using the Appropriate Preposition—More Practice

Directions: In the blanks, write the appropriate preposition.

1. My neighbor taught himself all ____________ outdoor sprinkler systems.

2. She often goes to the park ____________ us.

3. The delivery man put the box out of sight ____________ the porch.

4. Greg is well prepared ____________ his math exam.

5. The opposite ____________ happy is sad.

6. A full moon is showing just ____________ the hilltop.

7. We want to hear ____________ your vacation in Hawaii.

8. George asked the secretary ____________ an application for a job.

9. Do you ever have sausage and eggs ____________ breakfast?

10. The bus for Portland leaves promptly ____________ two o’clock.

11. The train arrives ____________ Portland at six o’clock in the evening.

12. My grandmother likes sugar and milk ____________ her tea.

13. The lecture starts ____________ seven o’clock.

14. Leslie sent her first e-mail ____________ after learning beginning computer skills.

15. The scientist demonstrated the chemistry experiment ____________ the class.

16. What class should I take ____________ English 101?

17. My new friend works in the office ____________ the hall.

18. My boss was absent ____________ work for two weeks after her car accident.

19. Most people prefer to travel ____________ plane instead of by train or bus.

20. I asked my professor ____________ an extension of the due date for my research paper.

21. I usually drive ____________ school in the winter.