CAMPUS CLIMATE SURVEY | HIGHLIGHTS

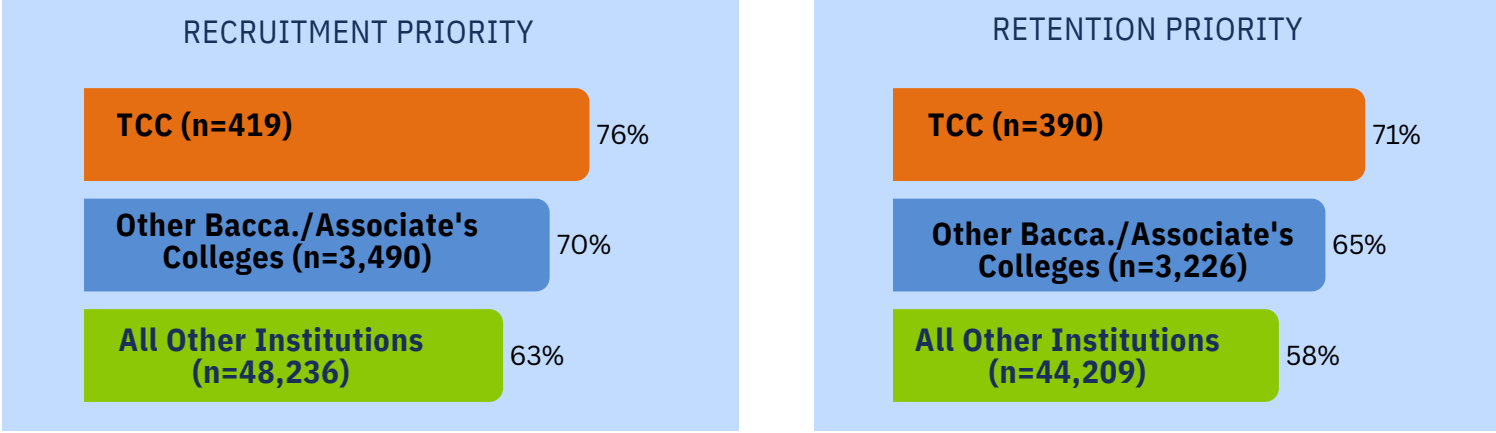

OVERALL SATISFACTION^b

TCC students indicated overall highest satisfaction (generally/very satisfied) with the campus climate compared to other groups

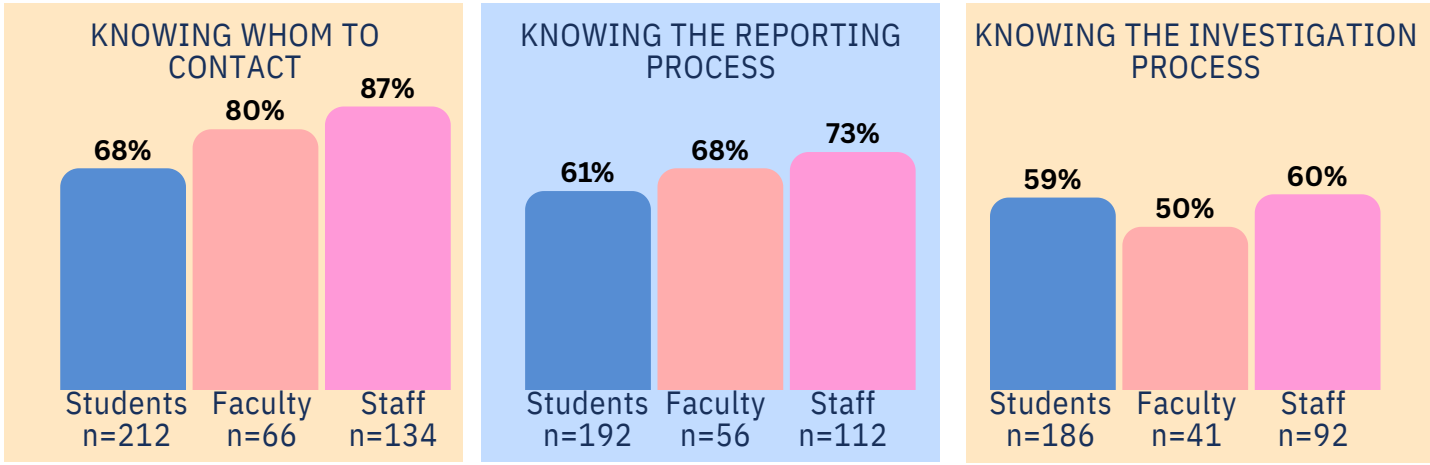

INSTITUTIONAL PRIORITIES: RECRUITMENT & RETENTION

TCC leads in the percentage of respondents who agree or strongly agree that recruiting and retaining historically marginalized students, faculty, and staff is an institutional priority.

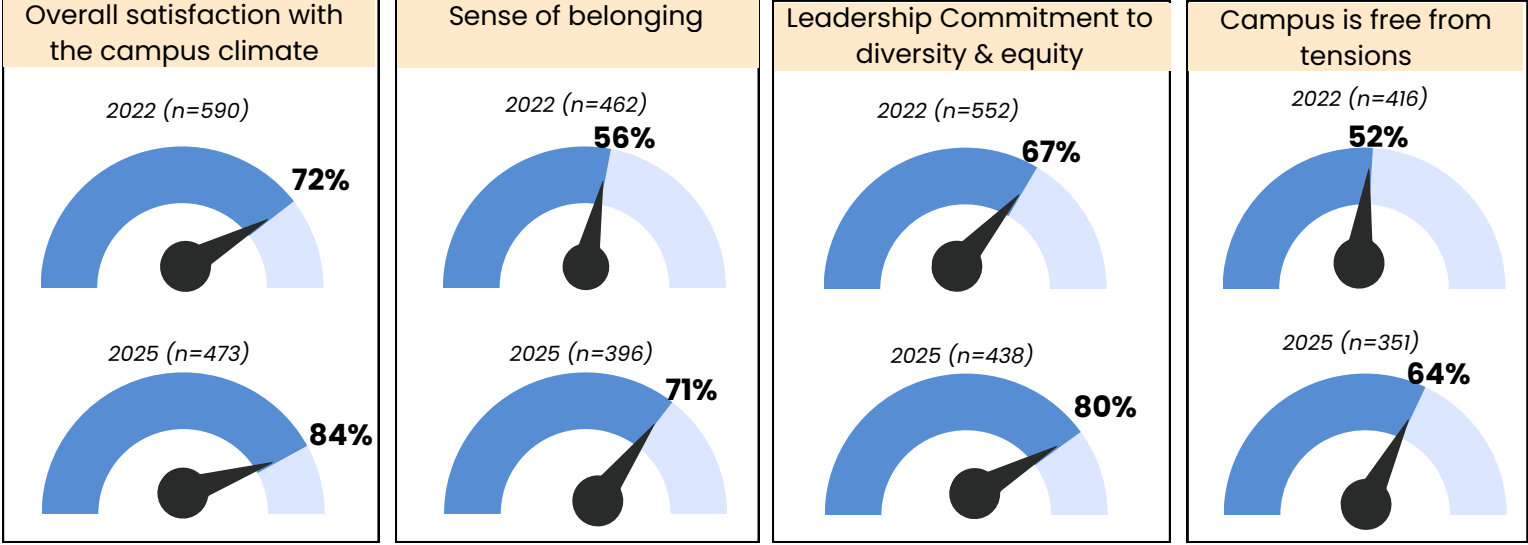

CAMPUS AWARENESS OF REPORTING & INVESTIGATION PROCESSES

Across all groups, respondents are most familiar with whom to contact to report an incident, but least familiar with the investigation process. Staff demonstrate most awareness for all three categories.

TRACKING IMPROVEMENT: CHANGES SINCE 2022^c

RESPONSE RATES^a

Total	Students	Faculty	Staff

Data Source: 2025 Campus Climate Survey Results. These results are high-level snapshots and should be interpreted with care. Aggregate data often masks important nuances and do not tell the whole story. We encourage digging deeper into how these results break down across different demographics and intersectional factors to get a true sense of impact and reveal a much fuller picture.

TCC Employees=TCC Staff + TCC Faculty

^aOverall, 654 respondents out of the 7,271 invited participants responded to the survey (9% response rate); 316 students out of the 6,398 invited students responded to the survey (5% response rate); 83 faculty out of the 361 invited faculty responded to the survey (23% response rate); and 155 staff out of the 512 invited staff responded to the survey (30% response rate). Respondents (100) who did not respond to the role question are excluded.

^bComparison institutions include institutions (other baccalaureate/associate's colleges and all other institutions) that administered the survey in the last three years (2023-2024, 2024-2025, and 2025-2026).

^cPercent of Respondents who are Generally or Very Satisfied with: The campus climate; with the sense of belonging; Percent of Respondents who Agree or Strongly Agree with: Senior leadership demonstrates a commitment to diversity and equity; Campus is free from tensions.
